HAWAIIANGAZETTE

PUBLISHED AND EDITED BY T. CRAWFORD MACDOWELL

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11, 1879. Important Appointments. It has pleased His Majesty the King, to appoint four additional members of His Privy Council of State, as follows: Col. William F.

Aller, David Kahanu, C. Afong, M. Kuaea and E. P. Adams, Esqrs. The above are excellent selections. There is one of the number, Mr. C. Along, who is a native of China, and we became the first of that nationality to enjoy the honor of a sent in His Majesty's Privy Council, which does not argue that His Majesty sympathises very largely with the coterie, who with the Advertiser, favor repressive measures against the Chinese on these Islands. By the appointment of Mr. Afong to a seat in the Privy Council of State, His Majesty has wisely recognized the Chinese element in this Kingtons in a marked and 'proper mainter. But what will the Advertiser do about it? Echo answers, what?

They Wince.

The Advertiser of Saturday last bristles all over with its usual ill-humor at the GARETTE, because the latter has a good word to say of those in power, simply because they are in power; and that if these contributors to the columns of the Advertiser had their way they would emply, if not totally destroy this Government. It is also equally well understood, that when his Advertiser understakes to arrow. that when the Advertiser undertakes to argue any question of importance, it invariably fails, and then descends to abuse and denunciation for lack of argument. In all this, the Advertiser folks are more to be pitted than blamed, for the reason that they cannot change their perwerse makures and must either howl or burst.

The proper proportions of the human form, as laid down by the best authorities, are as follows: The The disease which so sorely afflicts the Advertiser folks is a chronic one and past all remedy we fear. Then let them how!. "The galled jades wince, but our withers are unlarged jades wince the tips of the badd is the same as from the wind in the province of the hand, or seven and a half times the length of the hand, or seven and a half times the length of the hand, or seven and a half times the length of the hand, or seven and a half times the length of the hand, or seven and a half times the length of the hand, or seven and a half times the length of the hand, or seven and a half times the length of the hand, or seven and a half times the length of the hand, or seven and a half times the length of the which is given the head, or seven and a laft time the length of the which is given the head, or seven and a laft ti sit would be to attempt to "make a silk purse level of the ghis should be the same as from the level of the chin to that of the armpits, and from the heal to the toe, California's New Constitution.

The people of California, by the adoption of their new Constitution, with the ridiculous provision in it, to expel from the State about one hundred and sixty thousand Chinamen, because they are Chinamen have succeeded in rendering themselves the laughing stock of at the instance of the Senators and members stringent festrictive provisions in it against the emigration of Chinese, which President sar Offices throughout the Kingdon Hayes wisely vetoed, on the ground that such a bill was not only against the settled policy of the United States government, but was at war with existing treaty stipulations with China-ns well as the comity of nations, Strange to say, that with all these lights before them we have a few partially demented creatures in Honolulu, who advocate a similar policy, and advise this Government to render itself midiculous in the eyes of the world. and a fund and the front entrance of Alleriant Truly "there are none so blind as those who will not see." But the councils of such men are so monstrous that they defeat themselves to many the lot, adjusted the kuloma of Kanatra now by their very mention. This Government cannot afford to play the fool and be laughed at, merely to gratify a few persons whose sole object is "rule or ruin men;" who would rather "reign in hell than serve in heaven." From all such people and their crary machinations may the Lord preserve these fair Islands, and give us the benefit of enlightened government, These, on the Ben day of Ferre, 1879, at 12 M. The Negro Emigration in the Uni-

Some weeks ago we took occasion to touch upon the question of negro emigration from second of reach, of the land KULAIMAND, Him, Marwill the Southern to the Western States, and in that connection, spoke in terms of reprobation as strong as we thought the occasion required. We took the view we believed at the time to be the correct one, namely; that the exodus was the immediate cause of the bad treatment by the whites of the Southern States, in their unwarranted and unwarantable interference with the constitutional rights of the colored people at the elections. It appears however, that there is an other side to this question, and that the exodus of the colored people has been brought about by the wily machinations of politicians, in anticipation of the coming struggle for the Presidency in 1880; and that there is about as much philanthrophy in the scheme, so far as the white politicians are concerned, as there ever has been toward the black man of the South, e.g., a sympathy which is as transparent as it is heartless-a Minister of the Interior. delusion and a snare to catch the votes of the freedman for the benefit of one political party, which ever since the rebellion has profitted politically by its pretended love for the negro and his newly acquired constitutional rights. The "American Correspondence," a well-informed and nonpartisan paper, published at New York, under date of May 3d, takes occasion to lay bare the real facts on the subject of the negro exodus, which are interesting as items of news. It says:

Husekaries to the Istanion.—The Negro emi-gration movement from the Southern to the North-watern States has assumed still more abarming pro-portions, since we alluded to it a fortught ago. It an eo number event of the highest importance, as a will notably affect the production of cotton and it will notably affect the production of cotton and other articles principally furnished to Europe by America. The Southern press sess, with regret, that the movement is the rawit of political management, and that it will be (ar from benefiting the blacks, nearly 20,000 of whom have already left the plants tions. The Resolutelle, a very moderate journal, politically speaking, and well informed upon all pestions of social economy and agriculture affecting

The freedman, who is always entry of without walking any image, has pucked up file or and hurthed of the family to new regions where de-one of all acres await him.

It remains to be seen whether the political result of this emigration will not be altogether different from what the Republican politicians expect. It is very possible that the Northern American agriculture turn laborers, the Irish and the Germans, who have settled in Kansas, will not be disposed to regard the competition of negro inburers with favor, and will be driven, for that very reason, to abandon the Re-, which has given them such a costly and

She would next take a north north westerly direction until the set of the current was felt, when her course would be altered to due north. LETTER FROM NEW YORK

[Special Correspondence of the Genette.] New York, May 10, 1879. The weather here of late has been simply detests ble. Talk about spring indeed 1 Spring has only put in one or two furtive appearances, and has not yet stayed with us long enough to be recognized. Yet it is rearly summer by the calendar. The calendar the civilized world. Last winter, Congress, is a fraud; in fact almanace might as well be left unprinted for all the difference they make in the of Congress from California, passed a bill with weather. They only insult one's intelligence in trying to make one believe that it is late in the spring. when the real fart of the matter is apparent,-that we are only now just emerging from winter. Overnests and ambrelles are still almost our daily sompanions, and if some unlocky traveler starts out in be is almost certain to be reminded of his short sightedness by a rain storm before he returns in the evening. The rat which dies by the quick snap support all his financial plans. of a terrier, working on scientific principles, suffers far less than the human being who is slowly choked to death according to law ; but what of that? There is no society for the prevention of cruelty to adult human beings. Mr. Bergh has undoubtedly done a great deal of good, but he sometimes allows his hobby to ron away with him, and so appears ridiculous. There is a great rejoining to sporting circles over victories of Mr. Lorillards' borse "Parole" in England. This phenomenal animal has already netlikely other triumps are to come. We are feeling a little sore over the loss of the Astley belt, but now that we have beaten Brother Bull on the race-course we have more appetite, and feel better generally.

Living jewelry is not yet exactly the rage, but who knows how soon it may be? The fashion has sined a foot-bold in Paris, and several examples have cropped up in New York. The animal generally used is a species of Muzican bootle. He is about two inches long, has six legs, and is of a black and brown mottled appearance. probably he himself is better informed natter. He is fastened by a thin gold chain to the bosom of the dress, and is at liberty to trainer round in all his sprawing repulsiveness to the base offers of his tether. The proportions which the customed wearing living jewelry may assume are sharming. Already glow-worms and beclies have been pressed into the service of fashion; who knows but that there yet may be a demand for tarantula carrings, and rattle-make necklases? We may be having our "women folks" bedeeking themselves with living insects and reptiles till they are walking comperditums of instant history, and the man who upanies his wife to a ball will have as much to

The evidence against him was overwhelming, and proved him to be the micrable cowardly ruffiar that he is. But Williams laughed at the evidence, he beasted that the Commissioners dure not convict him, as he knew the much about them; it appears to that he was right, for they did not convict him. Only one of them, Geobral Smith, had the mahliness to vote for the swinger's disemissal; the other two Commissioners voted for acquittal.
